

<http://flowingdata.com/2009/10/01/30-resources-to-find-the-data-you-need/>

<http://pewinternet.org/Data-Tools/Download-Data/Data-Sets.aspx>

<http://www.statsci.org/datasets.html>

<http://archive.ics.uci.edu/ml/>

<http://www.esds.ac.uk/>

<http://www.statcan.gc.ca/rdc-cdr/data-donnee-eng.htm>

<http://www.ciqss.umontreal.ca/en/availableDataStatCan.html>

<http://www.kaggle.com/>

<http://data.gov.uk/>

<http://www.datawrangling.com/some-datasets-available-on-the-web>

<http://www.statsci.org/datasets.html>

<http://www.gapminder.org/data/>

<http://climate.weather.gc.ca/>

<https://www.ncdc.noaa.gov/cdo-web/>

your instructors

<https://gdc.cancer.gov/>

<https://data.edmonton.ca/>

R

<https://www.data.gov/>

https://www.bls.gov/emp/ep_chart_001.htm

<http://databank.worldbank.org/data/home.aspx>

<https://iridl.ldeo.columbia.edu/docfind/databrief/>

Twitter data, I heard it can be done ;-)

Case studies statistical society of Canada (usually challenging)